

The IPO represents, protects and promotes the interests of independent South African film, television and video producers in South Africa.

IPO Membership Application

All membership applications need to be approved by the Executive Committee to ensure there is no person claiming to fit into an incorrect category to save on membership fees. This would be unfair to the other members and therefore not allow equal access to all. By joining the organization, you agree to abide by our IPO Members Code of Conduct

Guide to Types of Membership

Producer Member: A producer member shall be an independent legal entity (e.g. company, close corporation, partnership) principally engaged in, or pursuing the business of producing in the South African film, television, commercial, video or multi-media production industry, and formally carries ultimate responsibility for his/her/its productions; and which has a production history (i.e. has actually produced a finished product). Legal entities shall nominate one representative from that legal entity. The nominated representative does not qualify for any (other) membership category. The membership fee structure is based on the annual turnover of the company for the most recent tax year.
